

HOTEL GUESTS

Lyrics by Mark Osier
TTA: Houseguests by Larry Warner

There are tons of little filking types a-playing in these walls
At night they sing so loud that you can hear them in the halls
By day they are all fast asleep so you think they've all gone home
But when it's night and they're next door you'll hear the mundanes groan

Yes the con is on the loose tonight - Mundania beware
They take the elevators so you have to use the stairs
If you think this is bad and you can't take it any more
Tomorrow there'll be more of them - they're staying on your floor

One year a new trek film came out - they came in like a flood
And soon the halls were flowing with a lake of Klingon blood
The Dorsai held troop movements and took over both the bars
They said bring them some Tully or they'd blow the place to Mars

Yes the con is on the loose tonight - Mundania beware
The armored knights with broadswords gave the owner quite a scare
If you think this is bad and you can't take it any more
Tomorrow there'll be more of them - they're staying on your floor

So if you have this problem then please write and let us know
We just can't seem to throw them out - the hotel needs the dough
The filkers in the con suite started up another song
I can't stop them from singing so I guess I'll sing along

Yes the con is on the loose tonight - Mundania beware
I see those babes in bunny fur and I just can't help but stare
They're loud and quite obnoxious and they all drink too much beer
But since I am the manager I'll let them back next year
