

JESSIMYN'S SONG

Lyrics and music by Mark Osier

Performed in Eb (Capo 3)

C G Am
I've never been a man known for my courage
F C G
I'd rather flee then try to fight and win
C G Am
And I'm not the kind of man who's known for wisdom
F C G
A simple man is all I've ever been

F G Am
But I've also never known a woman like you
F C G
Never felt this burning fire within my soul
F G C G/D Am
Sometimes I wish it'd go away and leave my heart alone
F C G
And sometimes I just wish I'd lose control

CHORUS

F G C
So Jessimyn come lay you down beside me
F C G
Let me hold you in my arms till morning's light
F G C G/D Am
I know that times are rough, but our love will be enough
F G F C
'Cause together we can drive away the night

There are things I know I cannot tell you
There are secrets that I cannot bear to say
There are things about me that would make you hate me
But sometimes I think I'd tell you anyway

Cause I've never had a burden quite so heavy
Never yearned so hard to share what's on my heart
But I cannot share my pain, even though it drives me mad
'Cause I'm not sure I could bear to be apart
