

XBOX AND BEER

Lyrics and Music by Mark Osier

The sun's going down while I sit here and play
And I didn't do a goddamn thing today
I would've spent the day with you, but you can't be here
So I sat and played Xbox and drank lots of beer

Eighty and sunny but I stayed indoors
Didn't work on my website, didn't do any chores
Can't get my mind off you, it's perfectly clear
So I sat and played Xbox and drank lots of beer

CHORUS

All that time on the console can't console my heart
And I can't drink away all the time spent apart
But of all of my options, it's the best one I fear
So I'll sit and play Xbox and drink lots of beer

Didn't go to the zoo - it's less fun alone
Couldn't go to the ballpark - the team's not at home
Didn't go to see Seether or some band with Bob Weir
I just sat and played Xbox and drank lots of beer

CHORUS

Instrumental/solo - chorus pattern

If I can't hold you to me then I'd rather I stay
In Pandora or Skyrim not California
'Cuz I miss you so badly that I'll shed lots of tears
If I don't just play Xbox and drink lots of beer

CHORUS

Yes I'll sit and play Xbox and drink lots of beer
I'll sit and play Xbox and wish you were here
